All those life lessons are, I believe, intended to instill into the young a sense of compassion, empathy and tolerance. And I believe that the organization is doing a good job at it. Chippewa Valley Health Center, where I recently worked with young people, has a method of treatment that has had very promising results. I was especially interested in the group sessions, which involved two counselors, a therapist and a participant. It was very moving to witness the results of group treatment in this case. I saw a young woman who had come into the clinic looking for a short-term solution to a problem that, by her account, was causing great emotional
